Health Department Announces Immunization Effort

BALTIMORE, MD (August 8, 2007)— The Baltimore City Health Department announces an important immunization effort this weekend. The Health Department TIKE van (To Immunize Kids Everywhere) will be offering free immunizations to children and adolescents for the upcoming school year. The van will be located at Lexington Market, 400 W Lexington Street, on August 10 from 10 am to 1 pm and at the YMCA Stadium Place, 900 E 33rd Street, on August 11, from 10 am to 4 pm. “Now is the time for parents to make sure that their children’s immunizations are up to date,” says Dr Joshua Sharfstein, the Health Commissioner.

For more information, including future dates for the TIKE van, call 410-396-4454.
