Health Department Announces Safe Streets Grant Opportunity

May 21, 2008 (Baltimore, MD) – The Health Department is announcing a Request for Proposals for community organizations to implement Safe Streets, a community-based intervention program focused on reducing shootings and homicides. Community organizations in areas with high rates of violent crime are eligible to apply.

Interested groups should contact Lori Toscano, Community Liaison, at 443-984-3566 or lori.toscano@baltimorecity.gov for information about applying. A mandatory Bidder's Conference for groups interested in applying will be held at the City Hall, 100 N. Holiday Street in the Curran Conference Room, 4th Floor on May 28, 2008 at 10:00 a.m. Proposals are due June 18th by 12:00 p.m.
